NATIONAL HISTORIC REGISTER
HISTORIC DISTRICT RANKING

A – A contributing resource with an exceptionally high level of integrity and historical and/or architectural significance to the Historic District.

B – A contributing resource with a high level of integrity and historical and/or architectural significance.

C – A contributing resource with a low level of integrity whose contribution could be enhanced by sympathetic rehabilitation.

D – A resource that does not contribute to the significance of the Historic District, but may be eligible for listing within another context.

E – A resource that does not contribute to the significance of the Historic District, and is not eligible for listing.